Arizona Transfer Admissions Pathway
Bachelor of Applied Science—Informatics (Software Development Track)
University of Arizona South
Cochise College
2014-2015

To qualify for the Informatics Transfer Admissions Pathway, a Cochise College student enrolled in an Associate of Applied Science program must:
- Complete an Associate of Applied Science degree in Computer Programming to transfer to the University of Arizona South to complete a B.A.S. in Informatics
- Complete ENG 101, ENG 102, and Second Semester Proficiency in a foreign language
- Submit an undergraduate application for admission form to University of Arizona during the university’s application filing period for acceptance, at least one semester in advance of transfer, and otherwise qualify for admission.
- Maintain a minimum recalculated GPA of 2.50 in last 60 units
- Satisfactorily complete all Cochise College graduation requirements for an Associate of Applied Science prior to the date the student intends to transfer to the university; otherwise, transcripts will be evaluated on a course-by-course basis.
- Keep in mind that the following course sequence reflects the coursework to be taken after the Associate of Applied Science is complete.
